Notes for WILLIAM ALFRED ROWLAND:

The following history was taken in part from the funeral service for William.

In 1903 he left England and went to Canada where he worked as a farmhand for several years. In December, 1909 he forfeited a homestead entry for the NW 1/4 of section 4, township 9, range 13, west of the 1st meridian. This is confirmed in a letter dated October 10, 1910 from the Canadian, Department of Interior.

Soon after his conversion, he felt the call to preach the gospel. For his Theological training he came to Chicago, Illinois, on December 13, 1913 to attend the Moody Bible Institute, from which he graduated in 1916. The date of entry is confirmed with a "Declaration of Intention," which was filed in the circuit court of Polk county, Wisconsin on April 2, 1918.

After graduation, Mr. Rowland served as a missionary in Wisconsin. He became a licensed preacher in the Methodist Church on August 24, 1917. At that time he was Pastor of the Methodist Church in Clear Lake, Wisconsin.

He then became affiliated with the Baptist denomination in which he served in several pastorates. He was duly ordained to the Baptist Ministry on September 7, 1923. Mr. Rowland and his family moved to Denver, Colorado in May, 1924.

At age 52, Mr. Rowland received his United States citizenship on December 19, 1938. In Denver, he was employed by Swift & Company until the time of his retirement December 31, 1951. While employee at Swift and during World War Two, Mr. Rowland served in the Auxiliary Military Police.

Although, Mr. Rowland left the pastoral ministry when coming to Denver, he served as a guest speaker and supply minister on many occasions, and preached in the various missions in Denver. He never ceased to be an avid Bible student. He was affectionately known by his coworkers at Swift as "Preacher Bill."
